

SAN JAIME SQUARE

Plaza de San Jaime de Barcelona (Plaça de Sant Jaume in Catalan) is one of the oldest and most representative of the city. Located in the heart of it, where was the center of the old Barcino, there is the Palace of the Generalitat of Catalonia and Barcelona City Council seat for House of the City. This place has great historic value but because their relatively recent origin of the early nineteenth century, was built applying the new facade of City Hall and was demolished the old church of San Jaime. It is well known by people and many tourists go every year to visit.
