

CASA DE LES PUNXES

This "pointed" building is located on Avenida Diagonal, although it is popularly known as the "House of Punxes" (House of the point), the original name is Terrades House.

Puig i Cadafalch is a modernist architect who designed this building in early 20th century. Made of brick and stone, with a medieval air, the House of Punxes is crowned by large panels and towers pointed. Also highlight the windows, the wrought iron of the balconies and sculptures. It is currently privately owned and cannot visit the interior.
